Mister Otis Skinner

BY CHARLES DARNTON

E WATCH the theatrical world go round and round, and still hope find something to think about when we go to a play. A child oxight have turned from its picture book to "Mister Antonio" at the Lovenin | Londer Boach." The piece was written Theatre last night and been jarred to sleep by the sounds of a hurdy gurdy.

looth Tarkington has made Amer Tlean life worth while in his sovels | an He cannot be put in first place, even on the level ground of village life, for this place was taken seriously, I may say tragtcally, five or sis years ago by Edith Wharton with her chilling ery "Ethan Frome." In his latest of New York City life with the weeds of New York City life with the weeds that flourish virtuously in outlying pened to be the many be painful, I believe the the light of a whiteled common stage demands comething more than a play in which as Italian organ grinder puts out a heiping hand to a visiting Mayor in an east side abooting 'caps' at his cheerful guide and philosopher, will cut short the career of the amiable wayfarer. With all respectively walks off with the career of the amiable wayfarer, with all spolegies to Mr. Tarkington, I clymple Theatre on Fourteenth Street this week. George Arias in "Paganint" and Otla Skinner in Mr. Tarkington's comedy find themselves musicians without anything interesting to play. Tet the sot remains that "Mister Antonio" is so far fetched that only the donkey sitched to the etreet plane may be considered seriously. It cannot be denied that Mr. Bitinner acts well. denied that Mr. Skinner acts well. He gives a glowing face, a ready tongue and eloquent gretures to his picturesque role. Unquestionably the part is suited to his essentially theratric personality. He takes to the road, fust as he did in "The Harvester," with easy stride and happygo-lucky freedom. Moreover, he has the somewhat remarkable privilege of playing a hand-organ in a quiet village on Bunday in defiance of the Mayor and the minister, who figure as neighbors in the simple little play. The fact that the organ-grinder gave

Copper King

Dear Mr. Guggenheim:)

As the head of the greatest mining properties in the world, you realize the real meaning of Force, Aggressiveness and Power. You have dug your fortune from the earth and have scattered the product throughout the world for the benefit of mankind. Hence you are doing the Big Thing and you are entitled to the position you occupy.

The same sort of enterprise and aggressiveness that made you what you are, will likewise place the Lord Salisbury Cigarette on the high-
